ICAAMC - Commitment on Business Ethics

The member companies of the International Compressed Air & Allied Machinery Committee shall strive to achieve the highest ethical standards, endeavouring to:-

- trade fairly and within the law;
- treat employees and those with whom they deal with respect and fairness;
- provide staff with safe working conditions whilst striving towards zero injuries;
- provide training, information and equipment to allow staff to undertake their tasks to the company's standards;
- support environmental responsibility through sustainable development
